WE ARE BORN CURIOUS™
A HOME FOR CURIOSITY

CURIOSITY HAS ALWAYS POWERED MY LIFE. It’s what led me to create the Discovery Channel* and to envision a collection of opportunities for passionate learners to interact with world-renowned experts. In 2014, I will be launching Curiosity Retreats during two 5-night gatherings at Gateway Canyons Resort & Spa in Southwest Colorado.

MAY 18 - 23, 2014

JULY 20 - 25, 2014

Each exclusive Curiosity Retreat will be limited to eighty participants who enjoy the assembly of eight distinguished luminaries in the areas of science, technology, civilization, and the human spirit. Artistic and musical interludes as well as daily activities, local excursions and culinary delights will accompany fascinating presentations featuring topics as diverse as string theory, nanotechnology, internet evolution, global conflict, health and happiness.

Gateway Canyons is a natural first home for Curiosity Retreats, where participants can “dive deep” into the wonders of our planet, the mysteries of science, and the marvels of human creation. I invite you to explore the landscape and engage the great minds, and together we’ll begin to touch the answers.

Welcome,
John S. Hendricks
