

BIZBASH

10 New San Diego Venues for Summer Entertaining and Events

The restaurants, hotels, conference centers, outdoor spaces, and more in San Diego suited for meetings and events this summer.

Darlene Horn

SAN DIEGO Here's a look at new San Diego eateries, drinking spots, hotels, conference areas, private rooms, and other spaces for all types of summer entertaining and events. The new and renovated San Diego venues are available for corporate parties, fund-raisers, outdoor events, business dinners, teambuilding activities, conferences, meetings, weddings, and more.

1. Kona Kai Resort & Spa

Kona Kai Resort & Spa in Point Loma recently finished a $27 million renovation and expansion and now offers 56,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor function space for meetings and events. That includes 13,000 square feet of indoor space and 43,000 square feet of outdoor space, including a private beach. The largest indoor space is the Point Loma Ballroom, measuring nearly 9,200 square feet. It holds 500 classroom-style or 650 for banquets. A new venue as part of the expansion is the Marina View Lawn, a 2,550-square-foot terrace space. The property also boasts a private beach that is available for events.